

6th European days on interregional co-productions

CALL FOR TELEVISION PROJECTS

Deadline for entering projects: 2011, October 31st

The FIPA - International Festival of Audiovisual Programmes - calls for documentary and fiction (drama, series or web programs) television projects. People will be offered the possibility of individual meetings with the commissioning editors invited by the FIPA.

Eligible projects

Projects have to be submitted in original language and in english.

- any documentary or fiction (one or several parts) television project, of any running time, any aspect ratio, any kind of production, shot on any material.
- any transmedia project, documentary or fiction (one or several parts), of any running time, any aspect ratio, any kind of production, shot on any material.
- looking for (co)production in one or several European regions.
- or looking forward to shooting in one of these regions.

Projects representatives

- scriptwriters, directors or producers from one of the European regions.

Registration

- Applicant projects are to be registered before 2011, October 31st, subscribing on line : www.fipa.tm.fr

Selection

- The FIPA will bring together a selective committee, made out of professionals. This comity will choose a total of 10 projects in all sections. The selected projects representatives will be informed directly.

Presentation

- A panel of European commissioning editors and producers, attending the 25th FIPA, will present their editorial line.
- FIPA will schedule one to one meetings with the decision-makers for the selected projects.

Training

- The representatives of the selected projects will take part a training workshop (tutor Jacques Laurent, Capnetwork) to prepare the public presentation of their project. Participation to this workshop is compulsory.

Partnership with

